

PRIVACY POLICY

The following websites process privacy-sensitive data or personal data:

gaps.aero

GAPS AERO considers careful handling of personal data of great importance. Personal data is therefore carefully processed and secured by us. If you have the impression that your data is not secure or that there are indications of abuse, please contact us, the contact details are at the bottom of this privacy statement.

In our processing we comply with the requirements set by the AVG. That means that we:

Clearly state with what purposes we process personal data. We will do that with this privacy policy;
Limit our collection of personal data to only the necessary personal data for legitimate purposes;
First ask you for explicit permission to process your personal data in cases where your consent is required;
Take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data and also require the parties that process personal data in our order;

Respect your right to provide your personal data for inspection, to correct or delete.

GAPS AERO is responsible for data processing. In this Privacy Policy we will explain which personal data we collect and for what purpose we use it. We advise you to read this carefully. This Privacy Policy was last published on 28-06-2018.

By using our service, you leave certain information with us. They may be personal data. We only keep and use the personal data provided by you directly, within the framework of the service you request or it is clear that they are provided to us to process.

We use the following information in this Privacy Policy (Below points 1 to 5):

Use of cookies

GAPS AERO will only place cookies which are necessary for the functioning of the website. There are also cookies which the effect is less immediately visible, such as Google Analytics cookies. We use anonymized data to improve the website experience. We can't improve our website without this information.

Cookies that are placed for analytical purposes or for advertisements are also called the 'third party cookies'. They are not placed by ourselves, but by the partners we work with. For this reason we can't take responsibility for this. If you do not want to use cookies, you can disable them via your own browser.

Which cookies do we use?

In short an overview of the cookies that we place / use:

Analytics cookies

We use Google Analytics to analyze how many visitors our website has and which pages they view. Google Analytics places cookies for this. We use this anonymized information to improve our service.

Functional cookies

With help of these cookies we recognize your computer (or smartphone, tablet etc.). Without these cookies certain parts on the website can't be used properly. With the cookies we recognize certain preferences or settings that provide the right experience for you

Session cookies

With help of a session cookie we can see which parts of the website you have viewed during a visit. We can adapt our service to your surfing behavior. Session cookies are automatically removed when you close your web browser.

Advertising cookies

We do not use advertising cookies.

Tracking cookies

We do not use tracking cookies.

Deny cookies through your browser setting

If you want, you can refuse cookies. You can do this via the 'settings' option of your internet browser. Choose the browser you are using below and follow the explanation for refusing cookies.

Please note: if you visit our website via different browsers, you must refuse the cookies separately for each browser.

Social media buttons

On our website there are buttons which you can promote web pages ('like') or share ('tweet') on for example Facebook and Twitter. These buttons work with pieces of code that come from the social media page. Cookies are placed with this code. We don't have influence on that. If you want to know more about the privacy policy of Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and LinkedIn, view them on their own website. For example, on the website of Facebook, Twitter or Google+ you can read the privacy statements to see what happens to your (personal) data.

We use third party content on our website. This content comes from another source (hosting) and is a code on our website. Think of YouTube videos. These codes use cookies, so the content is presented in the right way. What these partners do with cookies and the personal data can be found on the website of the partner in question.

Security

We take technical and organizational security measures to limit abuse of and unauthorized access to personal data.

Third party websites

This privacy policy does not apply to websites of third parties that are connected to this website by means of links. We encourage you to read the privacy policy of these websites before using these websites.

Changes to this privacy statement

We reserve the right to make changes to this privacy statement. It is advisable to consult this privacy policy regularly so that you are aware of these changes.
